INVESTMENT ALLOWANCE

The Federal Government has announced new investment allowances for certain business capital expenditure. The benefit will be provided in the form of a temporary additional tax deduction for the cost of new tangible depreciating assets on top of the usual tax depreciation for that asset.

Additional 30%

Businesses acquiring eligible assets between 13 December 2008 and 30 June 2009 will be able to claim an additional tax deduction, equal to 30% of the cost of new tangible depreciating assets.

The assets must be installed ready for use by the 30 June 2010.

Additional 10%

Businesses acquiring eligible assets between 1 July 2009 and 31 December 2009 will be able to claim an additional tax deduction, equal to 10% of the cost of the new tangible depreciating assets.

The assets must be installed ready for use by the 31 December 2010.

Expenditure Thresholds:

For Small Businesses (i.e. entities with an annual turnover of $2 million or less), the allowance will be available for assets with a business related cost of $1,000 or more.

For other businesses, the minimum expenditure threshold per asset will be $10,000.

Exclusions are as follows:

- Second Hand assets
- Assets used outside Australia
- Non-business assets
- Assets subject to tax deductions outside the tax depreciation regime – i.e., buildings, structural improvements, land, and trading stock are not eligible.
- Intangible assets

While the cash flow benefit of the Allowance will not be available until the relevant tax return is lodged, it may be possible to adjust tax instalment payments to take into account reductions in tax payable due to the expected deduction.

NB: Draft legislation was only released on 25 February 2009.

GOODS AND SERVICES TAX

The Australian Taxation Office is becoming more active in the Audit of Small Business BAS/GST Returns.

You must be in possession of a Tax Invoice for all transactions in excess of $75.00 (exclusive of GST) and all invoices must be made available to the ATO in the event of an audit. The vendor’s ABN must appear on the Tax Invoice.

Where a supplier’s invoice is in excess of $1000 your correct business name must appear on the suppliers Invoice. The ATO has indicated that they will disallow GST Tax Credits when these conditions are not adhered to.
ARE YOU IN THE TAXMAN’S SIGHTS?

Beware tax audit targets

The tax office does check claims, and data shows that more businesses are being caught out. We expect that the Tax office will increase their scope and conduct more audits over the next year or two, particularly now the budget is likely to fall into deficit.

Late last year, the Tax Commissioner revealed that, in 2007-08, the tax office:

- Reviewed 25,500 high risk refund returns, resulting in revenue adjustments of $38 million.
- Completed round 19,000 reviews or audits re work-related expenses, with revenue adjustments of $14.7 million. The tax office also wrote to over 200 tax agents, and visited another 300, about work-related expense claims.
- Completed around 7200 reviews or audits re rental expenses resulting in revenue adjustments of $9.2 million.
- Reviewed or audited 6,690 people concerning capital gains Tax (CGT), resulting in revenue adjustments totalling $1.5 million.

These figures give a clue to the major areas the tax offices focuses on when reviewing the tax affairs of taxpayers and businesses.

The tax office is also continuing its review of rental property deductions claimed in Income Tax Returns.

Last year’s surge in rental deductions was 11.8% up from the previous year and was more than double the inflation rate. So no wonder the tax office is interested.

It is very easy for landlords to inadvertently over-claim deductions, given the complicated tax rules that apply in making rental property claims. The tax office is also concerned that rental income is being under-reported, and will use data-matching to identify rental property owners.

There is simply no substitute for the good advice and protection that is offered via using a tax agent’s services. At HMA Twomey Patterson, we are looking at extending this protection via the introduction of an Audit Insurance Package.

For a relatively small fee we will cover the accounting fees associated with a Tax Office audit, giving you peace of mind if an auditor knocks on your door. We will be sending more information about this to clients in the coming months.

PENSION DRAWDOWN RELIEF FOR RETIREEs

On 18 February 2009, the Government announced the suspension of minimum drawdown requirements for account-based pensions for the second half of 2008-09.

This will occur through a 50% reduction in the minimum payment amount for 2008-09.
For those people who have already taken half of the current minimum payment for 2008-09, the annual nature of the minimum payment rules means that a further payment will not be required until the end of the 2009-10 year.

The temporary suspension of the minimum payment requirement will apply to account-based annuities and pensions; allocated annuities and pensions and market-linked (term allocated) annuities and pensions.

The measure responds to concerns that meeting the minimum drawdown amount in 2008-09 may mean having to sell investment assets and realise losses in a depressed market.

The temporary relief also addresses the concern that the minimum drawdown requirement was set based on asset values as at 1 July 2008, when equity values were higher.

NB: At the time of going to print, legislation had not yet been passed.

ATO ENGAGES EXTERNAL DEBT COLLECTION

In November 2007, the ATO engaged the services of four external debt collection agencies.

We have noticed a significant increase in the ATO’s eagerness to collect debt.

The ATO’s focus is to collect superannuation guarantee charge, GST, PAYG Withholding and Income Tax debts.

If you are having trouble paying your GST or tax debt on time, we recommend that you contact the ATO to arrange a suitable payment plan. We have found the ATO to be very obliging when contact is made and the current situation explained.

Our advice is to be proactive and don’t wait for them to call you!!
